Freshmen

The Freshmen Fall Frolic, which is the main event of the year for Freshmen, was held November 14, 1958, in the high school gym. Music was furnished by the Polka Dots of Flint.

The queen who reigned over the evening was Judy Springer. She was accompanied to the throne by the king, Richard Ward. The following students represented the court: Betty Gorman, Claudia Devereaux, Janice George, Sue Stoll, Margaret Holland, Carl Tomcal, David Way, Bill Ames, John McConnell and Wayne Coleman. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ellis did the honor for us of crowning the king and queen.

The gym was beautifully decorated to suit the theme, "Woodland Echoes", and a capacity crowd attended.

Future Farmers of America

The Chesaning F.F.A., under the leadership of Mr. Braun and Mr. LaPrad has had another successful year. To lead the large group of 97 members, it is necessary to have two sets of officers. The senior officers are: President, Frank Lycka; Vice-President, Frank Corrin; Secretary, Bud Chamberlin; Treasurer, Don Zubek; Reporter, Ray Armstrong; Sentinel, Burt Thurston; Parliamentarian, Doug Corrin. The junior officers are: President, James Oesterreicher; Vice-President, Doug Corrin; Secretary, Ken Swanson; Treasurer, Ron Gasper; Reporter, George Canze; Sentinel, Bob Cross.

The F.F.A. is really behind its teams preparing for the state contests in Leadership Training. The Farm Forum team placed first in the district and regional contests as did Gary Holt in Public Speaking, and are now getting ready to win the state. The Parliamentary Procedure team placed third in the regional. The five State Farmers are: Ray Armstrong, Bud Chamberlin, Don Zubek, Frank Corrin, Frank Kadlec. The members took an active part in the Saginaw Bean Show, Big Acre, Saginaw Fair, Farmers Week, and in our own Grain Show. Other activities included pheasant feed, Swan Finch sales.
